Why we want you

Our events are vital to Mencap, bringing people together to share experiences, launch programmes and celebrate successes! They also often help to raise funds for our services, such as the Mencap Direct helpline, advocacy services, and national campaigns such as Treat Me Well.

We couldn't run these events without the support of volunteers, so by giving a few hours of your time you can help us to host events and raise vital funds to support Mencap's work, supporting people with a learning disability to live happy and healthy lives.

What you will be doing

- Supporting with tasks and activities as required
- Helping the event team to ensure the event runs smoothly
- Sharing information about Mencap's work to those you interact with
- Representing Mencap and being a great ambassador

The skills you need

- Friendly and approachable
- Able to take instructions
- Reliable and patient
- Able to work as part of a team
- Comfortable in busy settings

What's in it for you

- An opportunity to volunteer in an events environment
- The chance to meet new people
- To feel fully supported in your role
- Agreed out of pocket expenses to be paid (e.g. travel)
- Feel appreciated and valued
- Make a difference
