About the Team and the Role

Are you ready to make a difference with people with a learning disability?

The Healthier Me Coach is key to the delivery of our exciting new programme at Mencap – Healthier Me.

Healthier Me aims to improve health outcomes for people with a learning disability.

Some key responsibilities of the Healthier Me Coach include:

- Supporting people with a learning disability to improve their understanding of - and access to - health and wellbeing.
- Empowering personal support teams and partner organisations with better tools to support health and wellbeing.
- Working with the community to make health and wellbeing offers more accessible for people with a learning disability.
- Coaching people with a learning disability to set and achieve personal health goals (training provided).
- Delivering Healthier Me workshops to a range of audiences (training provided).
- Completing reporting required for internal and external monitoring, accurately and on time.

- Managing a colleague with a learning disability, the Healthier Me Champion.
- Engaging and building relationships with a range of stakeholders including people with a learning disability, Mencap service teams, Mencap Network Partners, community organisations, health professionals, families and carers.

In this role you will be working within a team of Healthier Me Coaches across England, Wales and Northern Ireland. You will work both independently and collaboratively. You will report to the Healthier Me Programme Manager.

The Healthier Me Coach will use a community-led approach - giving people we support and the wider community opportunities to contribute and be part of local solutions. The coach will establish strong working relationships that enable Mencap to secure positive outcomes for people with a learning disability.
