Where you will be based

Community

Why we want you

We support adults with a learning disability who live in a Mencap home near you who are looking for a friend. They all have different interests and would love a volunteer to come and spend time with them doing what they love, as a Mencap Mate! If you have a few hours a week to spare, like a chat and want to give back to your local community then we'd love to hear from you!

What you will be doing

- A range of activities based on the interest of you and those you volunteer with, but could include:
- Having a chat or catch up
- Going for a stroll in your local area
- Playing games or doing activities at home
- Enjoying hobbies together
- Most importantly, spending quality time with a person with a learning disability doing what they love

The skills you need

- Friendly and approachable
- Reliable, kind and patient
- A good communicator (including listener)
- Willing to volunteer within guidelines and to take direction when necessary

What's in it for you

- Make new friends and help bring joy to someone's life
- Reasonable out of pocket expenses in line with out policy eg. travel
- Full training and support
- Volunteer alongside experience care professionals
