Why we want you

Do you care about making a positive difference and helping create a kinder, fairer, and more inclusive society for people with a learning disability? By sharing a small amount of your time, skills, or experience, you can help make real change in ways that fit around your life. Every contribution matters, no matter how small.

Sign up and we will share small and time-light opportunities to make a difference, where you can just join in with the micro-volunteering opportunities you fancy, whenever you fancy doing them.

What you will be doing

- Micro volunteering tasks vary and can be one-off or occasional. Examples include:
- Online Opportunities that you can do from home
- Supporting at adhoc Mencap events in your area
- Supporting us in campaigning for change
- Fundraising to help support our work
- There's no long-term commitment required, you can get involved as much or as little as you like.

The skills you need

- Friendly and approachable
- Able to follow instructions
- Basic digital skills (for online tasks such as email or social media)
- Reliability – doing what you say you will do
- Accepting of others who might be different to yourself
- Represent Mencap with our values of Brave, Kind, Inclusive, Passionate and Positive at the heart of what you do

What's in it for you

- A flexible way to support a cause you care about
- The chance to use or build skills
- A sense of impact, even with limited time
- Feel supported, appreciated and valued
